

“Deb’s Ditties”

Dear Abby:

I am a crack dealer in Okotoks Alberta who has a steady flow of customers from nearby junior high schools. I have recently become engaged to marry a former Cold Lake prostitute who lives in Smoky Lake and is still a part-time “working girl” in a brothel there. My parents live in a suburb of Ponoka, and one of my sisters, who lives in Hobbema, is married to a Native transvestite. My father and mother have recently been arrested for growing and selling marijuana in Camrose, and are currently dependent on my other two sisters who are prostitutes in Calgary. I have two brothers. One is currently in jail awaiting charges of sexual misconduct in Bowden.

All things considered, my main problem is this: I love my fiancé and look forward to bringing her into the family. I certainly want to be totally honest with her. Should I tell her about my cousin who is a member of the Liberal Party?

Signed,
Concerned

Thanks D.M.

If you have any jokes you would like to share, please email Debbie at debbie.lewis@plant4seeds.com